What a busy year the clubs have had! Reports submitted reflect 15,411.5 volunteer hours in 387 projects.

Signature Project: 28 projects, 339.5 hours
Community Service Programs: 282 projects, 12,395 hours
Advancement Areas: 77 projects, 2,677 hours

These numbers only reflect a small picture of what was accomplished as not all clubs chose to report. Oregon’s GEMS are truly amazing!

“GARDEN OF GEMS”

Convention is just weeks away! We have a fun, interactive hands-on event planned for Friday night. There will be workshops on Parliamentary Procedure and the Duties of Officers and Program Chairman. Our guest, Deb Strahanoski, GFWC Treasurer, will be installing the 2014-2016 Officers. I hope you can attend and give them your support.

Bylaws Committee will be submitting a revised document for approval at Convention.

Resolutions will also be submitted for affirmation and amendment.

The “R&R” Boutique will be back again! If you have any donations please bring them to Convention. There will also be party themed raffle baskets donated by the clubs.

LOOKING FORWARD TO A GREAT CONVENTION!

Western District

March 27, 2014

I want to thank Oregon City Woman's Club for a great job hosting our spring district meeting. Susan Lindauer, Executive Director of Children Trust Fund of Oregon shared information on Prevent child Abuse with our pinwheel project and we encouraged members to help get the word out to our communities. Member's brain stormed and shared fundraising ideas that they could use for their clubs. Great ideas!

Western District Club woman of the Year was announced and our winner is Carol Bianchini.

Freddy Lou Barneburg installed new officers for fall 2014-Spring 2016.

- Penney Rich, President, Beaverton Woman's Club
- Carol Bianchini, First Vice President, Portland woman's Club.
- Brenda Wondzell, Second Vice President, Beaverton Woman's club.
- Becky Ball, Secretary, Hillsboro Federated woman's Club
- Elsie Dustin, Treasurer, Portland woman's Club.

As a member of GFWC Oregon you are part of its team, so step up to the plate when needed and continue to support this organization.

With great respect,

Elsie Dustin
Past District President
